SHARP REPORT.

Messrs Vernon and Smyth in their weekly share report dated November 5th state—

The market continues dull and inanimate and there is but little business to report. Rates with few exceptions have not fallen, but the inclination to weakness is still in evidence. Exchange on London closes at 1/8 1/4 T/T, and on Shanghai at 75. Business between this and Shanghai has been interfered with by the news at the latter port, and transactions have been but few and far between.

Bank—Hongkong and Shanghai continue more or less neglected, and with the exception of some very small sales at 905 and 902 1/2 we have no business to report. The London rate has fallen to 290 1/5. In Nationals we have no business to report, but there are no longer any buyers at quotations.

Marine Insurance.—Unions have been on offer during the week at 84 1/2, but we have heard of no business and they close with sellers at that rate. Other stocks under this heading call for no remarks.

Fire Insurance.—We have no changes or business to report in this section.

Shipping.—Hongkong, Canton, and Amoy have ruled a little easier, and after small sales at 31 close with sellers at 30 1/2. Indo-China continue in demand without bringing any shares on the market. Shell Transport have local buyers at 72, London quoting 71 1/2. Other stocks under this heading remain unchanged and without business.

Refineries.—China Sugars have ruled firm and a fair business has been transacted at 149, 149 1/2 and 150 cash, and at from 150 to 152 for December; the market closes with buyers at 150 cash, and apparently no sellers. Lard has changed hands at 20.

Mining.—We have no changes or business to report under this heading.

Docks, Wharves and Godowns.—Hongkong and Whampoa Docks continue quite neglected, but with sellers at 55. Kwai-ling Wharves have changed hands at 64, 63 1/2 and later at 63, closing steady at the last rate. Other stocks under this heading call for no remarks.

Land, Hotel and Buildings.—Hongkong Lands have found small buyers at 104. West Point are in a small demand at 23, but we have no sales to report. Hotels have improved to 74 for the old issue, and after sales at that rate close with further buyers. Humphreys continue on offer at 9, but no sales have resulted.

Cotton Mills.—Hongkong are on offer at 6. Swos have ruled firm in the North at 149, and Soy Chees at 460, by telegraph. International have improved to 91 and later at 91, closing steady at the last rate. The last three quotations are taken from the latest Shanghai circulars.

Rubbers.—The market has ruled quiet, but the tone has been distinctly better, and at the close a firm feeling prevails. The following sales have taken place during the week:—Sponges at 23, Shellac at 36 1/2, and some small forced sales at slightly lower rates, the market for the last mentioned closing with a demand at 36 1/2. Castor oil has been done at 62 and 61 1/2, closing firm. Gummi Choke has changed hands at 44 1/2 for fully paid up shares. Belgovines at 68, Pezoms at 24, and Anglo-Malays at 16 1/2.

Miscellaneous.—With the exception of small sales of Cements at 7 1/2 and of China Lights at 4 and China Provs. at 9 1/2 and 9 3/4, we have no business to report under this heading. Steam Laundry are on offer at 6 1/2 ex the dividend of 40 cents paid on the 1st inst.

RAMBLING NOTES.

We are now well down to our usual autumn stride. Concerts, dances, and theatricals will fill in the evenings for a long time to come; Saturday afternoons are crowded to the fullest extent with cricket and football matches, while golfing, riding and sailing will also be indulged in. It would be a veritable curmudgeon who would call Hongkong a dead and alive hole these days.

Of course, I know, it is greatly a matter of temperament. The solitary man who dreads associating with his kind need not go into the heart of the desert to find a solitude. He can make it where he stands. But it is the average man who makes up the great bulk of humanity and for him, I imagine, Hongkong can afford a fair amount of pleasant and profitable amusement during the winter months, for after all the steamiest and most indefatigable chaser of the nimble dollar will admit that we can't always be at work, a little recreation must interpose the routine of labour.

So the rational, normal-minded man, I reiterate, can spend a pleasant and a profitable time in Hongkong these days. With London only three weeks away, with a constant supply of books, newspapers and magazines always entering the Colony, with visits from such distinguished artists as the Wilton Concert Party and the various Bandman Companies, we can keep in touch with the movement of the world of science, art, letters, music and the drama much better than was possible a decade ago.

There are minor ills of course, but why rake them up to-day when the whole Colony is rejoicing in the nuptials of one of its best known sons and one of its homeliest daughters. That the young couple who plighted their troth this afternoon in St. John's Cathedral may have a long and prosperous wedded life together is the fervent hope of all who have seen them grow up from childhood as well as of many who have only made their acquaintance in recent years.

I should have liked Hongkong to have done better in the Interport Rifle match. Of course Singapore's record total was a very high figure to attain to, but there is no mistaking the disappointment in the Colony that the team did not reach the figures made last year. Hongkong is not so keen on shooting as it was a few years back. Several of the old enthusiasts have left us and there do not seem to have been any fresh comers to take their places. It is a great pity for, whether regarded as a sport or pastime, rifle shooting induces a right excellent course of discipline for the mind as well as for the body. Let us hope that the Colony's eclipse is but temporary and that some another year we may once again put on the top score of the match.

I came across the other day two specimens of rather unusual variants on the "Soft as butter that turneth away with a strike me as fairly unique. Both hail from America, needless to say. In the first case it was a young wife who was rather nervously interviewing her cook. She said: "O cook, I must really speak to you. Your master is always complaining. One day it is the soup, the second day it is the fish, the third day it is the joint—in fact it is always something or other." Whereupon the cook replied (with feeling): "Well, mum, I'm sorry for you. It must be quite awful to live with a gentleman of that sort."

The other instance happened in a photographer's studio. Said a very nice woman: "These photographs you made of myself and husband are not at all satisfactory and I refuse to accept them. Why, my husband looks like a baboon." But the photographer was equal to the emergency. He sweetly said: "Well, that's no fault of mine, madam. You should have thought of that before you had him taken."

Last week I alluded to the fact that Bishop Fees, of Kobe, had been called an "old sport." This week I am reminded that he is not the only wearer of the episcopal habit that has been so dubbed. The Bishop of Southwark has also had the title applied to him, which calls back to memory an incident from his life. He was playing at cricket with his relatives, the Lyttons. "Let us have the ball in the parish," said Dr. Talbot, standing at the wicket and watching an obvious "wicket." The next ball took him below the belt, and he, resigned all his equanimity to meet the remark of the bowler, "I think that was in the diocese, my lord!"

I was greatly interested, Mr. Editor, in reading your quotations from Mr. J. S. Thomson's book "The Chinese," especially those in reference to St. Andrew's Ball, which will so soon be on us again. Don't you think the author is guilty of very bad taste when he refers to the graceful, delicately featured Hongkong girl as "Miss Anemia"? It is fortunate that our serial crime has left the Colony, or I'm afraid he would not be altogether popular with the ladies here just now.

Anticipating the Ball the young ladies begin to wonder how many dances they will enjoy with charming Mr. So-and-so, while the smart boys will be turning over in their minds as to how their attentions shall be divided amongst the fair ones. But has it ever struck any of the pretty girls to resolve upon devoting a whole evening to giving joy to the "old fogies" who always roll up on this one occasion in the year? After reading an incident in an American paper recently it has occurred to me that such an attitude might at least be financially profitable. Surely this prospect should appeal to a Scotch Ball!

It appears that a most delightful American girl went to a dance and there noticed an elderly man who was receiving scant attention. So, in the goodness of her heart, she gave him several dances. After the dance the girl did not see the man nor did she hear of him until some weeks after, when she received notice that he was dead and had left her $35,000 in negotiable securities. Now, Hongkong girls, don't forget the old birds.

A certain Hongkong journalist has been visiting Manila and the newspapers there have in characteristically American style, been giving him plenty of "wringing up." They even began while he was on the way to their fair city. In bold black type one of the journals let it be known that "Editor is coming." I wonder whether this was intended to be complimentary or was published as a warning, just as due notice is always given of the likely arrival of a typhoon.

I've been diving into statistics—I was going to say dry statistics, but they have to do with Hongkong's water supply. No, I'm not going to trouble you with a mass of figures. All I want to point out is that although the populations of Hongkong and Kowloon are both estimated to have considerably increased since last year, yet in both places the consumption of water has been thousands of gallons less. What's the matter? Are we becoming less temperate? But now that liquors cost us so much more than formerly perhaps there'll be a run on water. In the interests of temperance that would be all very well, but it is to be hoped, now that we've got a decent stock of water, that the economising thirty ones won't drain the reservoirs completely dry.

DEATH OF MR. G. CALTHROP.

Found Dead at the Peak.

Our readers will hear with feelings of deep regret of the death of Mr. George Calthrop, barrister-at-law, which occurred under tragic circumstances last night.

When the sad news began to circulate this morning little else beyond the mere fact of the death, and also that there appeared to be some element of mystery connected with it, could be ascertained. The police had received news of the sad affair, but only knew that Mr. Calthrop's body had been found somewhere at the Peak.

From enquiries subsequently made we learn that Mr. Calthrop had last night been dining at a friend's at Mount Kellet, the Peak, and had left in time to catch the 11.15 p.m. car on the Peak Tramway. So far as we can ascertain, he was never again seen alive. At any rate at about 8 o'clock this morning his body was found lying in a stone culvert about 100 yards from the gate to the Maillie Hospital. Dr. Williams was immediately summoned and on examining the body he discovered that deceased had broken his neck. From the appearance of the roadway at the spot it was apparent beyond any doubt whatever that in walking along in the dark deceased had stumbled and fallen into the culvert where his body was later found. There were absolutely no indications pointing to foul play. Deceased left his home alone and had given himself ample time to catch the car. Being extremely near-sighted he must have made a false step and met his death by pure accident. This morning his body was removed to the Mortuary at Maillie Hospital to await the funeral, which took place at Happy Valley this afternoon.

Deceased, who was unmarried, was 43 years of age. He was a well-known figure in the Colony, having practiced as a barrister here for the past five years. He had had a varied career in the legal profession. The son of the late Rev. Gordon Calthrop, he was educated at Fettes School, Cambridge. He obtained the degree of B. A. (Law Tripos) in 1888, being then only 22 years of age. He subsequently became a student of the Inner Temple, and in 1890 he gained the Common Law Scholarship. He was called to the Bar on June 10th, 1891, and admitted to practice as a barrister and solicitor in the Gold Coast Colony in March 1901. Here he remained for three years and then came to Hongkong, where he has since resided. He made a good number of friends here, and was greatly liked by all who enjoyed his friendship.

THE SHANGHAI AUTUMN RACE MEETING.

A Resume of the Results.

The Shanghai Autumn Races for 1909 are now a thing of the past but interest has not yet been altogether cooled by present and coming events so I have compiled an analysis which I hope you will find room for somewhere in the columns of your paper. On glancing at it you will see Hongkong has done very well. Much better than usually when running ponies in the "Model Settlement." It is the same with Shanghai when they come down here. Their "cracks" in autumn will be beaten by our "cracks" in Feb. next. The reason is difficult to guess. Those who might be supposed to be well versed in racing conditions in the Far East usually say when asked, they don't know. Others say it is the change in climate, the difference in the time of year, or the course. Nevertheless, whatever the cause, Hongkong seems to have got partially over it this time. We know the course must have been very heavy—like a soaked sponge, which probably spoilt the chances of the Shanghai flirts. But it was the same for all so it is all the more to the credit of Mr. Mody, his trainer and his ponies that they did so well.

When I say Hongkong has done well I'm looking at it in this light. There were five Hongkong stables (calling Jardine's and Marshall's Hongkong) racing against some 65 Shanghai stables and these stables pulled off 9 stints, 6 seconds and 3 thirds. Mr. Mody not only heads this list but heads the list for the whole meeting having 5 wins, 2 seconds and a third to his credit. Mr. Macwatt is second with four wins and the Ballinas-Syndicate with two firsts, six seconds and two thirds. Mr. White was unfortunate in having his ponies knocked up during the training. Barry cannot have been very bad as he came second in a mile and a half race to Fabius and beat Susquehanna. Jardine's have been unfortunate lately, gaining two wins only at this meeting under review and two wins only at the last meeting here.

Out of the eight ponies that won twice, three came from Hongkong: Spring Rose, Little Gem Rose, and Kirkpatrick. Little Gem Rose was beaten for the first time in his career, being third to Sagittarius while his stable companion, Spring Rose, second. I think this must have been a very close race and the softness of the ground was probably the cause of the Roses being beaten. Rudewy, winner of the Leger and the Racing Stakes, was not placed. Of course he may not have been run but I do not think that probable. Gemini, winner of the Championships the last two meetings, did not pull off a race, being second three times and third once.

Burkill heads the list of jockeys with 7 wins, 3 seconds and 3 thirds; but Moller was placed the greater number of times, having been placed no less than 21 times out of the total number of 27 races. To be eleven times second and five times third must be rather trying though one has landed home first five times.

Until the rioters return we shall not know how much the late affected the meeting as a whole, but all the same I presume the meeting was a success. Local followers of the Sport of Kings will now look forward to the forthcoming meeting here in February next.—Ombudsman.

HONGKONG ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY.

Three practice dances will be held in the City Hall from 8 to 7 p.m. on the following dates:—

Monday, 8th November
Tuesday, 9th
Wednesday, 10th

Societies, whether resident or passing through the Colony, can only attend the Ball and Practice Dances as subscribers. All intending subscribers should forward their names to Mr. David Wood, the Hon. Secretary. The practice dances are jolly little affairs and we anticipate that the St. Andrew's Ball this year will come up to its usual standard. The Band of the Buffs will be in attendance at the practice and the Ball.
